

2019/2020 Guadalupe Shark Boat Overview

Great White Shark Dive Isla Guadalupe

FAQ

Do I need to be a certified diver? No. Non-divers can shark dive in one of our popular floating surface cages. Dive certification is only required if you want to enter our deep water cage.

How long are the trips? Most trips are six days in length and include up to three days of shark diving.

Do I need a passport? Yes. Most choose to begin and end their adventure in San Diego. Shark divers meet at our designated hotel in San Diego and travel as a group, by motor coach, to Mexico, where our vessel docks. (Shark divers have the option of meeting our crew in Mexico.)

What does it cost? Pricing is per person and varies according to vessel selection and accommodation choice. 2019 prices ranges from $2934.75 to $5800 with tax and 2020 pricing ranges from $3039.75 to $4509.75 with tax.

Will I have my own cabin? A few single rooms are available, but most accommodations are double occupancy. If you are traveling solo, we will pair you with another solo traveler.

FAQ Continued

What is included in the price? Price includes shark diving, crew assistance, accommodations on the boat, meals and non-alcoholic beverages.

What is NOT included in the cost? You will be required to pay a port fee of up to $65. Other costs include mandatory trip insurance, travel to San Diego, gear rental if needed and any alcohol or incidentals purchased. A crew gratuity of $300 per diver is suggested.

Is there a minimum age to shark dive? Yes, but older children and teens are welcome on select dates, when accompanied by a parent or guardian.
